

Putting your ACBL Number into BBO.

Step 1: Logon to BBO.

Step 2: Click on ACBL World

The screenshot shows the Bridge Base Online (BBO) website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with "Back" and "Home" buttons, and the text "Bridge Base Online Home". Below this, there's a "PLAY OR WATCH BRIDGE" section with links for Solitaire, Competitive, BBO Prime, Casual, and Practice. A "FEATURED AREAS" section is highlighted in green, containing links for ACBL World, Robot World, Virtual Clubs, Challenges, Instant Tournaments, and Vugraph (live broadcasts). A pink arrow points to the "ACBL World" link with the text "Click HERE". On the left side, there's a red sidebar with the Staples logo and a "Shop now" button. The bottom of the page shows a "Lobby" button and a "Message" button. The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom.

Step 3: Select Update Your ACBL Number

The screenshot shows the BBO website interface. At the top, there are navigation buttons for 'Back', 'Home', and 'ACBL World'. Below this is a table of tournaments with columns for Host, Title, Type, Start, Entries, and Entry Fee. A pink arrow points to the 'Update your ACBL number' button located at the bottom of the page.

Step 4: Put your ACBL Number on the line. Click UPDATE.

The screenshot shows the 'Update your ACBL number' page on the BBO website. The page has a header with 'Back', 'Home', and 'Update your ACBL number' buttons, and a 'BBO LOGOUT' link. A yellow warning message states: 'You already have an ACBL number on file, you may not currently change it.' Below this, there is a form with 'User name: jgrill' and 'ACBL Number on file: N156971'. A pink arrow points to the input field for the ACBL number. An 'Update' button is located below the form. Below the form, there is explanatory text: 'Update your number as needed and press the Update button. An ACBL number is made up of 7 digits for non-LMs, and a letter followed by 6 digits for LMs. If you do not have an ACBL number, you might as well close this form. To obtain an ACBL number, join the ACBL.'
